LA 3402-S advised on 6/25/62 that in a letter dated 6/21/62 from Moscow, LAWSON writes that he and his wife, SUE LAWSON, will remain abroad at least until late winter of 1962 and possibly until the spring of 1963. (C)(u)

LAWSON's letter indicated that while he is continuing his work on his book on the theory of film art, it is not progressing as fast as he would like; however, he expects it to be ready for the publishers by 1963. (C)(u)

Both LAWSON and his wife have had health problems during the past year. He says his wife suffered a mild heart attack last winter in Moscow and had to be hospitalized. He himself has a gallbladder operation which resulted in post-operation hernia. LAWSON spoke in glowing terms of the care hospital cases receive in the Soviet Union. (C)(u)
